• Develop and manage the print and electronic library collections and serve as subject specialist supporting these disciplines.
• Serve as liaison to faculty in assigned academic departments, and support/expand use of library resources to support student learning.
• Provide face-to-face and online general reference in a team environment at a central service point.
• Serve as an active member on library working groups to enhance library operations and services, contribute to new technological initiatives, and support the library’s continuing evolution into a dynamic and responsive organization.
• As a tenure-track faculty member, participate in professional organizations, serve in library and university governance, and conduct appropriate research/creative activities.

QUALIFICATIONS:
Required:
• ALA-accredited MLS/MLIS degree
• A second master’s degree or evidence of the completion of a second master’s degree within the first year of employment.
• Subject expertise in the social sciences or related disciplines demonstrated through substantive coursework or relevant experience.
• Strong public service commitment and ability to work in a highly collaborative, culturally diverse environment.
• Ability to use technology creatively to meet current and future library challenges.
• Excellent communication, presentation, and interpersonal skills.

Preferred:
• Work experience in an academic library.
• Instruction and reference experience, especially in an academic library.
• Second master’s degree in a social science discipline that is taught within NEIU’s College of Arts and Sciences.

CAMPUS AND COMMUNITY: Founded in 1867, Northeastern has a rich tradition of educational innovation and prides itself on preparing teachers and administrators who make a difference in Chicago. That tradition continues to this day and has expanded to include an array of academic disciplines, allowing the University to embrace fully the community in which it resides.
Northeastern is regarded as the most diverse public comprehensive university in the Midwest and is designated by the U.S. Department of Education as a Hispanic-Serving Institution. Diversity is an important factor in the character of Northeastern and in the social fabric of its student body. The University has an enrollment of more than 10,000 students; African American, Hispanic, Asian and Native American students represent nearly 60 percent of the student body.

Located on 67 acres in an attractive residential area on the Northwest Side of Chicago, the University offers more than 80 undergraduate and graduate programs in the arts, sciences, education, and business. The University has additional locations in the metropolitan area: Jacob H. Carruthers Center for Inner City Studies; El Centro; Center for College Access and Success; and University Center of Lake County.

The Ronald Williams Library (www.neiu.edu/library) is located on the west side of the main campus. The main library is comprised of approximately 140,000 square feet and contains approximately 700,000 volumes of print materials. In addition, approximately 500,000 other educational resources such as electronic books and journals, audio recordings, microfilms, maps, documents, and DVDs are housed in the Library. The Library subscribes to 188 databases which provide access to the full text of approximately 73,000 journals. The building provides seating for more than 600 users, 43 public computer workstations and numerous study areas. The Library is a member of the Consortium of Academic and Research Libraries in Illinois (CARLI).

APPLICATION PROCESS: Send a letter of application, resume, and the names, email addresses, and phone numbers of three references via email to LibSearch@neiu.edu. Subject line should read “Social Sciences Librarian application”. Paper applications will not be accepted. Review begins January 21, 2018. The position is open until filled, but only applications received by February 15, 2018 can be assured full consideration.

Northeastern Illinois University is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer and invites applications from women, minorities, veterans and persons with disabilities, as well as other qualified individuals. Northeastern Illinois University positions are contingent upon the University’s receipt of its State of Illinois appropriation.
