

2024 SUMMER DATA CAMP

WHAT WILL I BE DOING AT CAMP?

Camp participants will learn the fundamentals of data, data wrangling, analytics, statistical modeling and more. Students will be taught programs such as Excel and R Studio and participate in roundtable discussions with faculty and graduate students. Finally, students in a group of 3 will complete and present an independent project on a topic of their choice.

REACH YOUR GOALS

The FREE camp prepares students for Applied Data Research. It teaches the skills necessary for advanced research experience within university and career settings.

WHO SHOULD APPLY TO CAMP?

Students from NEIU and partner institutions from the Chicago area. The camp is open to all students at Northeastern Illinois University, CHEC Fellows, and no particular background or training is required.

SUMMER DATA CAMP

BE PREPARED FOR
APPLIED DATA RESEARCH

2024 SUMMER DATA CAMP: BE PREPARED FOR APPLIED DATA RESEARCH

The Research and Statistical Services unit (REST) within the NEIU Center of Health will provide a 3-day Summer Data Camp entitled Be Prepared for Applied Data Research.

During the camp, participants will learn about the fundamentals of data, data wrangling, analytics, statistical modeling and more. The camp will prepare participants to complete an independent research project, providing them with the necessary skills for advanced research experiences offered at NEIU and beyond. Also, during camp workshops, student campers will be encouraged to pursue short, exploratory, team-based research projects that will be shared as poster presentations on Friday, July 26th, 2024, during the 2024 Summer Data Camp Research Jamboree. In preparation for the poster presentations, project mentoring will be made available through the Research and Statistical (REST) Services Unit within the NEIU Center of Health.

The workshop is open to all students at Northeastern Illinois University and partner institutions from the Chicago area. No particular background or training is required. The program is free and participants who completed the summer data camp will earn a Digital Credentials Badge for display on their professional network accounts (e.g. LinkedIn). Participants who successfully complete the final data camp project and poster presentation will be awarded a $100 honorarium for their work. All completed data camp projects will be entered into the 2024 Summer Data Camp poster competition and placed on display during the camp's Research Jamboree. Prizes for 1st ($300 per team member), 2nd ($200 per team member), and 3rd ($100 per team member) place will be awarded on July 26, 2024.
